RUNNING FIGHT WITH TWO BURGLARS

IN WHICH ONE WAS INJURED

Dr. Sein Whom the Burglars Captured
Was Tied to the Safe That Was Wrecked.

Frankfort, Ind., April 22—This morning two burglars blew a safe in the postoffice at Michigantown and secured about $100. Dr. C. A. Sein who was returning from a professional call was captured by the burglars and taken to the postoffice, where he was bound hand and foot and tied to the safe. The robbers used three charges of dynamite before the safe door was blown open and Dr. Sein was badly shocked by the force of the explosion. After robbing the safe the burglars tied Dr. Sein more securely, took his gold watch and left. The police here were notified of the robbery and officers Alford and Nichols were sent east of the city to watch. At 4 o'clock they saw two men walking along the railroad and as the officers started toward them the men opened fire upon the officers. They returned the fire and twenty shots were exchanged in the running fight. Blood was found upon the ground and it is thought one of the robbers was wounded though both escaped.

Notice Filed in Cases of the Beef Packers Trust by Federal Attorney Today.

Chicago, April 22—Notice of default was filed in the cases of the beef packers' trust today by the federal attorney because of failure of the packers to make answer to the petition that they be permanently enjoined before the time limit set by the court expired.
Attorneys for the packers announce their intention to stand by the issues raised in their demurrer of insufficiency and mutifariousness. Sixty days yet remain for them to appeal.
Final decree in the lower court will be entered this week. The packers may ask the supreme court to reverse this but their failure thus far to fight the case prompts the belief that no appeal will be taken.

CHOKING BREAKS
MAN'S LONG FAST

Chicago, April 22—An absolute fast of two weeks was broken yesterday by Charles Hyde, under the orders of the police and Dr. Isaac Friedman.

For 14 days Charles Hyde has eaten not one mouthful of food of any description. Laboring under the "conviction of sin," he had refused to eat and neither eaten nor spoken as a penance for his sinful nature.

Dr. Friedman tied a cord about Hyde's neck and drew it tightly about shouted out, "Stop that!"

The words seemed to break the spell for yesterday Hyde ate a good breakfast, spoke to his mother and put on his clothing.

to death in the county jail in this city.

LEE WILLING

To Return but He Wants to Tell Only Part of What He Knows About the Matter

St. Louis, April 22—The St. Louis grand jury temporarily adjourned to enable Circuit Attorney Folk to give his attention to the trial of the local hoodlums' cases. Mr. Folk held a conference with Robert E. Lee, respecting the return of his brother, Lieut.
Governor Lee. After the conference
Mr. Folk said he expected Lieut. Governor Lee to return to St. Louis on Thursday or Friday.

The absent Lieut. Governor is anxious to return if he be allowed to tell only a part of what he knows about the transactions said to have taken place here and in Jefferson City. Mr.
Folk will not listen to any such proposition. He insists that Lieutenant Governor Lee reveal everything. The Lieut. Governor's reluctance to tell all is due, his brother, Robert E. Lee, says, to his wish to shield some of the unfortunates.

Circuit Attorney Folk will probably go to New York to negotiate with Charles Stearns, Kelley's legal adviser for the latter's surrender.

Mr. Folk and the Attorney General believe that Kelley, the representative of the baking powder combine, will, if given the opportunity, turn state's evidence.

Governor Dockery wired to State Attorney Folk that he had received word to the effect that Lieut. Governor Lee was in Staunton, Va.

CURRENT

RENDERED N. & G. CONDUCTOR
HOLLER UNCONSCIOUS

Soon Recovered and Wanted to Resume Work—How the Accident Occurred Wednesday

As Conductor Walter N. Holler of the Newark and Granville Electric Railway, was starting west about noon Wednesday to Granville, he met with an accident that was quite serious and might have been attended with fatal results. The car was on the southeast corner of the Public Square when a wire broke. Conductor Holler climbed on top of the car and attempted to repair the broken wire. He grasped the wire in one hand and was holding on to the trolley pole with the other hand, thus unconsciously making a complete circuit. The electricity from the overcharged wire passed through his body giving him a heavy shock and knocking him from the top of the car to the pavement below a distance of eight or ten feet. He fell heavily on his back and head and was rendered unconscious. He was carried into R. W. Smith's drug store, and Dr. D. M. Smith was immediately sent for. After working with him some time, Dr. Smith succeeded in restoring the injured man to consciousness, and he did not seem to be seriously hurt. Conductor Holler insisted on going back on his car and was finally permitted to do so. He had scarcely got on the car again, however, than he was taken sick, and he was taken to his home. It is thought he will be able to attend to his duties again tomorrow, unless he is injured in some way that does not appear at present.

Westinghouse Employees
are Discharged

COMPANY REFUSING TO GIVE OUT
ANY INFORMATION

WORKMEN JOINED THE UNION
And They Say They Were Discharged
for That Reason—Now Serious Trouble is Threatened.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 22—Three hundred and twenty employees of the big Westinghouse Electric company's plant at East Pittsburg were summarily discharged this morning, the company refusing all information as to the cause. The workmen charge that it is due to their action in joining the union last week. Trouble of a serious character is threatened, other discharges being expected, with a strike of those still at work. The wage question does not enter into contest.

The entire town is agog with excitement and the idle men are thronging the streets.

Last Saturday night almost all of the machinists employed in the plants met and formed a branch of the machinists' union. The officials got wind of the movement and as a result it is said the men were asked to leave the employ of the company.

Th discharged men hold that in a sense they are strikers now and that they will remain out until the company recognizes the union.

BLEW UP SHIP

Wouldn't Surrender When German
Warship Approached—Admiral
Blew Up His Vessel.

Washington, April 22—An interesting history of the scenes attending the enforced retirement of General Sam as president of Hayti and of the revolutionary period following is told in the Haytian series of diplomatic exchange appearing in the forthcoming volume of foreign relations of the United States.

Following is an extract from the report of Minister Powell on the destruction of the Firminist gunboat Crete and the death of her commander, Admiral Killick, whose surrender was demanded by the German warship Panther:

"It is reported that the Panther reached Gonaves about 12 m. on September 6. On her arrival she signalled the Crete to surrender and fired one shot; that she had five minutes to do so. Most of the officers and men had shore leaves, and were not on the vessel.

"Killick the day previous had had an operation performed and was in bed at his home. On hearing the report of the cannon he hastily dressed and with the officers and crew rowed to the Crete. Killick on reaching the deck of the Crete saw that it was useless to fight, so he ordered the officers and crew ashore and at the same time directed three kegs of powder, some large cartridges and a can of kerosene oil to be placed in his room.

"After most of them had left the ship Killick retired to his room with two men. The last thing he was seen to do was to light a cigar, fire this train and take a seat in a chair, dressed in his uniform. Before the boats could reach the shore an explosion was heard and the rear portion of officers' quarters of the ship was destroyed."

"A few minutes thereafter the Panther, which was within range of the Crete, opened fire and continued until the last shot entered her magazine."

ZANESVILLE

MISTREATED

Zanesville and Lancaster People Are Beneficiaries of the Estate of a Pittsburg Millionaire.

Zanesville, O., April 22—In probate court, Miss Minnie Langstaff was adjudged insane.

She has labored under the hallucination that the officers of the city hospital mistreated her and has written scores of letters to the matron and various members of the board of trustees, threatening to do them bodily harm and to kill their children.

Zanesville relatives received word from Pittsburg that the will of the late W. W. Card, the millionaire vice president of the Westinghouse company, who was killed by a traction car was filed in probate court yesterday afternoon. The value of the estate is four millions.

Mrs. Abigail C. Osborn, wife of Rev.
G. P. Osborn of Cincinnati, a sister of the deceased, receives $25,000, and a Pittsburg sister, Mrs. Julia C. Harmont, receives $15,000, her children receiving $10,000.

Horation G. Trout of Lancaster, a brother-in-law, receives $10,000 and his six children $15,000 to be divided between them.

ville, a nephew, is remembered with a $2,500 bequest and Louis B. Mather of Newark, Pa., receives a similar amount.

Pa., benefits by the instrument to the extent of $5,000.

The home is bequeathed to the wife and the balance of the estate is bequeathed to the Safe Deposit and Trust company of Pittsburg, to hold, the net income to be divided as follows: One-third to the widow and the other two-thirds to the four children, Henry S.

Ruth Card and William D. Card.

BLIND

Led the Blind to the Altar, Where
They Were Wedded—A Boston
Elopement.

Boston, Mass., April 22—The guardian of the bride objecting, Miss Harriet Nichols, of Chelmsford, who is totally blind, eloped from her home with Everett J. Clark, of Cambridge, also blind, and they were married in that city by Rev. Dr. Williams.

Notices of the wedding were sent to the families of both, while they are speeding South on their honeymoon.
Clark who is an expert piano maker, met his bride several years ago when both were students at the Perkins Institute for the Blind, and have been lovers for years.

The family of Miss Nichols raised no objection to his paying her attentions but they objected to their marrying.
Then his family objected. On Sunday
Clark and Miss Nichols came to Boston ostensibly to visit friends of her family, when arrangements for the wedding made by seeing friends were carried out.

"I married the couple," said Dr.
Williams, "but I did not want to.
The law should prevent such marriages. As it does not, and they were determined upon marriage, I felt it my duty to marry them."

MACHINE

Of a Cleveland Man Will do the Work of Hundreds of Glass Blowers
Is Closely Guarded

Cleveland, Ohio, April 22—Jealously guarded in a Cleveland bank are the plans of R. L. Frink, a young Cleveland mechanic, who has invented a glass blowing machine, which he says will revolutionize the glass industry.
He claims that with his device glass can be made cheaper than by the blowing machines, which are owned by the American Window Glass Company. Four patents have been obtained, and nine or ten more are applied for.

Mr. Frink says his machine is two feet long and would manufacture all kinds of glass. It will turn out 15 feet of lineal glass five feet wide every minute. He said the machine was operated by six men and would do the work of 300 by the old process. It is also claimed the machine can manufacture paving brick or anything that can go put in sheet form.

A company will be formed with several millions capital it is said.

MAN

Whose Wife Was Killed

By Jessie Morrison Has Married Again.

OLIN CASTLE WEDS GIRL WHO REPORTED TRIAL

MISS MORRISON WITH BROTHER Awaiting Supreme Court Decision for New Trial—Tried Three Times for Murder.

Eldorado, Kan., April 22—Olin Castle husband of Clara Wiley Castle, whose throat was cut with a razor when a bride of only one week by Jessie Morrison, was married in Long Beach, Cal., to Mrs. Lillian De Talente, of Whitewater, Kan., formerly editor of the Whitewater Independent and later a reporter on the Eldorado Republican.
Mrs. De Talente became infatuated with Olin Castle while reporting Jessie Morrison murder trial for the Republican. The Castles moved to California several months ago, where Olin is working in a department store, and Mrs. De Talente joined them a week ago.

Mrs. Morrison is with her brother in End Ok. T. awaiting a Supreme Court decision on her appeal for a new trial. She was tried three times for the murder of Mrs. Castle. On the first trial the jury disagreed. On the second trial she was convicted, sentenced to five years imprisonment and was taken to prison. She appealed to the Supreme Court, which granted her a new trial. She was convicted again, sentenced to 25 years in prison and taken to the penitentiary the second time. After serving three months the Supreme Court granted her a fourth trial, and she is now at liberty under $10,000 bond awaiting trial.
She has declared that she will never return to prison and it is expected that she will kill herself if she is convicted again.

Jessie Morrison went to the home of Olin Castle, with whom she had been desperately in love, just a week after he had been married to Clara Wiley.
There was a desperate struggle, during which Mrs. Castle was cut so badly with a razor that she died. She swore in her dying statement that Jessie Morrison came to the house and deliberately sought her life.
Jessie Morrison's defense was that as she was passing the Castle home Mrs. Castle called her in and attacked her, and that the killing was in self defense.

BATTLE

This Morning Between Watchman and Two Burglars. One of Whom Was Mortally Hurt

Pittsburg, Pa., April 22—In a pitched battle with two burglars caught in the Racket store of Apollo this morning, night watchman John Kennedy shot one who will die. While passing his bat, Watchman Kennedy noticed the rear door of the store standing open. He entered the store and was knocked down by the burglars as they endeavored to make their escape. Kennedy followed them firing as he ran. A hundred yards from the store the burglars stopped and opened fire on the watchman.
He returned the fire wounding one of them in the groin. The other escaped.

The wounded burglar was removed to a hospital. He refused to give his name. Although a dozen shots were exchanged Watchman Kennedy did not receive a wound.

ADMINISTRATOR UNDER THE NEW CODE.

The Plain Dealer says that a dozen of the best lawyers of Cleveland are at present working upon an absolutely accurate interpretation of the new code which goes into effect one week from Monday. On that day this city as well as Cleveland will be in the transition period from the old plan to an entirely different form of government, and in the opinion of lawyers, every move of the first few days must be made only after the utmost caution has been exercised and in the most guarded way. Because of the questions involving great interests that will come up for settlement during the transition period the city officials will scarcely do anything else for the next few weeks except to get correctly started under the provisions of the new code. There are many knotty problems to be solved in the beginning of the rule of the city under the new code and it is fortunate for Newark at this time that such competent men were elected Mayor and City Solicitor as A. J. Crilly and Phil B. Smythe. The calling of a meeting of the Solicitors of the State, which Mr. Smythe has just brought about, shows his interest and determination to get started right under the new administration of the city's affairs.

An observing traveler who recently made the river trip from New Orleans to St. Louis says it was a great disappointment in one respect. The passenger traffic was insignificant compared with its proportions forty years ago. But there was another side of the picture. The river traffic in freight is heavier than ever before, and "the water way is of more importance than in its halcyon days." The people are too busy to travel by boat with the cars available, but the freight business passes its grand proportions of fifty years ago.

A federal grand jury having indicted a job-lot of naval, military and marine officers for smuggling liquors into Porto Rico, there will be some curiosity to see whether Mr. Knox will nullify the federal statutes by forbidding the district attorney at San Juan to prosecute the cases. If that sort of thing can be done grand juries might as well be abolished.

The prolonged silence of the Honorable Elihu Root at last receives explanation. The Honorable Elihu is sitting upon General Miles' Philippine report, which threatens to explode and blow holes in Elihu's administration if it is left unguarded for a single moment.

An Old Favorite

ULYSSES

By Tennyson

IN this poem, considered by many critics the finest specimen of English blank verse, Tennyson has represented Ulysses, king of Ithaca, as living a life of ease after his return from the ten years of wandering. The story of the wanderings and homecoming of Ulysses, one of the most celebrated of classic heroes, is told by Homer in the Odyssey. The "rainy Hyades," mentioned in the tenth line, were nymphs, changed to stars, whose rising and setting with the sun was formerly considered an omen of bad weather.

IT little profits that an idle king,
By this still hearth, among these barren crags,
Matched with an aged wife, I mete and dole
Unequal laws unto a savage race,
That hoard, and sleep, and feed, and know not me.
I cannot rest from travel; I will drink
Life to the lees. All times I have enjoyed Greatly, have suffered greatly, both with those That loved me, and alone, on shore, and when Thro' scudding drifts the rainy Hyades
Vex the dim sea; I am become a name;
For always roaming with a hungry heart
Much have I seen and known—cities of men
And manners, climates, councils, governments,
Myself not least, but honored of them all—
And drunk delight of battle with my peers,
Far on the ringing plains of windy Troy.
I am a part of all that I have met;
Yet all experience is an arch wherethro'
Gleams that untraveled world whose margin fades
For ever and for ever when I move.
How dull it is to pause, to make an end,
To rust unburnished, not to shine in use!
As though to breathe were life. Life piled on life
Were all too little, and of one to me
Little remains; but every hour is saved
From that eternal silence, something more,
A bringer of new things, and vile it were
For some three suns to store and hoard myself,
And this gray spirit yearning in desire
To follow knowledge like a sinking star,
Beyond the utmost bound of human thought.
This is my son, mine own Telemachus,
To whom I leave the sceptre and the isle—
Well-loved of me, discerning to fulfill
This labor, by slow prudence to make mild
A rugged people, and thro' soft degrees
Subdue them to the useful and the good,
Most blameless is he, centered in the sphere
Of common duties, decent not to fail
In offices of tenderness, and pay Meet adoration to my household gods,
When I am gone. He works his work, I mine.
There lies the port; the vessel puffs her sail:
There gloom the dark, broad seas. My mariners,
Souls that have toiled, and wrought, and thought with me,
That over with a frolic yell come, and
The thunder and the sunshine, and opposed
Free hearts, free foreheads—ye and I are old;
Old age hath yet his honor and his toil;
Death closes all; but something ere the end,
Some work of noble note, may yet be done,
Not unbecoming men that strove with Gods.
The lights begin to twinkle from the rocks;
The long day wanes; the slow moon climbs: the deep Moans round with many voices. Come, my friends,
'Tis not too late to seek a newer world,
Push off, and sitting well in order, smite
The sounding furrows; for my purpose holds
To sail beyond the sunset, and the baths
Of all the western stars, until I die.
It may be that the gulfs will wash us down;
It may be we shall touch the Happy Isles,
And see the great Achilles, whom we knew.
Tho' much is taken, much abides; and tho'
We are not now that strength which in old days Moved earth and heaven, that which we are, we are—
One equal temper of heroic hearts,
Made weak by time and fate, but strong in will
To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.

LOSS OF SLEEP MEANS LOSS OF MIND.

Inability to Sleep is Nature's Plain Warning of an Exhausted Nervous System of a Condition That Means Complete Nervous Prostration or Insanity if Allowed To Continue.

DR. A. W. CHASE NERVE PILLS

Give Sleep of the Most Natural Restful Type by a Steady, Quiet, Soothing Influence on the Nerves, Due to their Direct Tonic and Nourishing Effect on the Half-Starved Nerve Centers.

ANERVA AND NEVER EQUALED

When you overwork any muscle or set of muscles they tire and must have rest. What is true of muscle is doubly true of brain, as from it emanates all power to work, to act, to think. The brain is full of little cells that during the waking hours are never quiet in their efforts to furnish to every organ the power to do its duty. Rob these little cells of their rest at night—keep them at work all the time, and soon they tire, refuse to act, fail to generate nerve force and system goes to ruin. Bromide's sedative, operates only hasten the end—they do not build up, they tear down. The true remedy, the only cure, lies in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, a medicine that revitalizes, reinvigorates, and by properly nourishing these overworked little cells, give them rest and quiet and enable you to sleep naturally and easily again.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills were bought for me and they are a grand tonic. They pulled me up—gave me strength and rest and enabled me to sleep peacefully. As a whole the result was splendid and I am glad to recommend the medicine as a grand tonic to the brain, nerves and system generally."

The Fall of Jericho

A Summer Resort Boom That Failed to Boom

[Copyright, 1903, by O. B. Warner.]

IT was Deacon Spooner who started it. The deacon sent him off to a summer resort for two weeks to get rid of fever, and when he came home he had the biggest kind of an idea in his head. He got down to the postoffice that same evening and said to the crowd:

"What we want to do is to turn in and make Jericho a summer resort. She's got everything the heart could wish for, and if we don't see 10,000 people there next summer it will be our own fault. I'm primed with facts and statistics, and I move we call a public meeting for next Tuesday evening."

The idea met with favor, and the meeting was called, and during the interval the price of butter and eggs went up 20 per cent. Most of the families in town decided on taking boarders, and they decided that $10 per week would be a fair price to charge. There was a large turnout at the meeting, and Deacon Spooner went right to business by calling for order and saying:

"It may be taken for granted that this large and enthusiastic audience has assembled here tonight for the purpose of placing Jericho where she belongs—on the pedestal beside Newport and Saratoga. We have here a town of 750 inhabitants. It is five miles from any railroad. There is quietness here; there is scenery and health. You don't find any skeeters, and you never hear of any one having the ague. No circus ever shows here to corrupt our morals, and if a wind-mill man comes along and talks too loud there is an ordinance to restrain him. Nature meant this to be a place where man could come and rest his weary soul and body and go back to the world rejuvenated, and up to this date none of us has known what a good thing we had."

The deacon stopped for applause and got it, and after bowing his thanks he went on:

"The idea is to turn Jericho into a summer resort and welcome thousands to her gates. To get a boom under way our motto must be 'Pro bono publico.' There must be no hanging out, no examples of individual selfishness. I'm one who is willing to turn my house into a hotel for the summer to accommodate the strangers who will come here, and I'll also make the price of board as reasonable as possible."

"Deacon, about what would be your price for board?" asked True Love White from the audience.

"From $10 to $12 a week, I guess," was the reply.

"And what would your fodder be the people on?"

"Mostly on meat and fatters, but of course apple sass and custards would come in pretty often."

"Then I move that the price of board be fixed at $11 per week all around, with extra for washbowl and looking glasses."

The deacon put the motion to the meeting, and it was carried, and he then said:

"There will be hundreds come here who will want to buy land and build cottages. I've got about twenty village lots, and in order to start the ball rolling I'll put them in at a low value. I hope others will follow my example."

"What would you call a low value, deacon?" asked Moses Turner as he rose up.

"Well, I might say $400 apiece. I presume they'd bring twice that, but we don't want to rob anybody."

It was moved and supported that all lots worth about $500 apiece be put in at $140 in order to induce a boom, and after it had been carried the deacon tackled the subject of a lake. All summer resorts had at least one, and fortunately for Jericho the village owned a horse pond. There was no doubt in his mind that the pond could be enlarged and improved and made into a lake, and he moved the price of boat hire would be put down to the lowest figure. In this he would agree to put twelve boats on the lake and not charge above a dollar an hour for any one of them. In this he was charged would be a hundred, which to null people who were half-dead.

Then came the question of hauling the people to and from the railroad. Nothing was arranged on a person as to me to take them on the start. He had the night a matter over, and it was decided that the charge should be $2 per capita in each direction. In case any one started a livery stable in town—and three or four such institutions would be sure to rise up—the fixed rate should not be above $5 an hour for a horse and buckboard. When he was at a summer resort, he had longed for pumpkin pie, and it was not to be had. People who came to Jericho would bring their own pumpkin pie would be ready, but there must be no extortion. Every pie, no matter whether round or square, should be cut into four pieces, and the price per piece should be 25 cents.

There was one thing more, and the deacon proceeded to state it. The people should turn out to welcome every new arrival and make him feel at home, but for every such turnout there should be a fixed charge of 20 cents, and the same should be collected with the board bill. The meeting adjourned amid great enthusiasm, and several of the houses were illuminated in honor of the occasion, and everybody went to bed happy. They were still rejoicing next day when a tin peddler came along. He heard what had happened, and then he shook his head and mournfully replied:

"I'm sorry, but you people will be disappointed."

"But how?" was asked.

"Why, Halifax is offering all that you are and is going to throw in two mudholes and a brickyard for nothing, and the crowd will all go that way."

Only one summer resort came to Jericho, and he slept in a fence corner over night and stole apples for his breakfast. M. QUAD.

An Odd Advertisement.

The sudden popularity some years ago of Mr. Shorthouse's book, "John Inglesant," is attributed to an odd incident. "Mr. Gladstone," says the London Express, "was sitting to a photographer and holding in his hand a copy of 'John Inglesant.' The gold lettering on the cover caught the light, and the title showed clearly in the photograph. The likeness of the great statesman proved a very popular one, and its circulation broadcast over the country led to a widespread demand for the book."

The Castile Carlyle.

J. E. Boehm, the sculptor, once met Gladstone at a country house and was immensely impressed by the extent and diversity of the statesman's knowledge, as revealed in his conversation. Boehm was still full of the subject when the morning arrived for Carlyle's sitting for a bust, and to the philosopher the sculptor poured forth his admiration for Gladstone's intimate acquaintance with subjects so far apart as gardening and Greek. Carlyle listened for a time in scornful silence; then he said, "And what did he say about your work?" "Oh, nothing," said Boehm. "He doesn't know anything about sculpture." "Of course," growled Carlyle, "of course, and he showed his knowledge about things that you didn't understand. No doubt if you asked Blackie he'd say that Gladstone knew nothing about Greek, and the gardener would tell you that he knew nothing whatever of gardening."

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co. Binghamton, N. Y. OIL FOUND

IN SEVERAL GAS WELLS NEAR UTICA

In Small Quantities—Only a Small Amount at Croton—Oil Field May Develop Later

Utica, Ohio, April 22—The telephone messages from Croton a few days ago announcing an oil strike there on the Coleman place, caused no surprise here as more or less oil has been found in several of the gas wells that have been drilled in this territory. Contractor Hunt, however, confirms the later report from Croton that the oil strike was insignificant and that in fact the story was magnified by certain Croton people for a joke on Mr. Coleman. A very little oil was found but not enough to cut any figure.

There is so much oil in the Hamlin Conard gas well three-fourths of a mile from Utica, that it is necessary to "blow off" the well every few days in order to let the gas flow properly. There was at least eight barrels of oil found in the William Vance well No. 1, and some oil was found in the Utica company's Sperry well.

The presence of oil even in small quantities throughout the field leads many gas men to say that eventually this whole territory will develop into an oil field. They argue that the oil is now kept back by the gas pressure but that in a few years after the gas has been drawn from the earth the oil will flow here in paying quantities. How long the gas will last can not even be guessed at, but it is the belief that it will continue its present high pressure for years.

FRIGHTFUL

DEATH OF 4 YEAR OLD CHILD AND INJURY

Of Another, Both Being Children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, Formerly of Utica.

Utica, Ohio, April 22—Word has just been received from Peru, Nebraska, announcing the frightful death of a child of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson and the serious injury of another child in the same family. Mrs. Thompson was formerly Miss Maggie Smoots and is the daughter of Mr. Philip Smoots of this place.

The letter which has been received from the west says that on Tuesday of last week the two children aged 4 and 2 respectively, were playing out of doors with a large bundle of excelsior. The Thompson family had just moved from Iowa where they went from this place several years ago, to Peru, Neb., and had unpacked their goods. The dishes had been packed in barrels, and excelsior had been used to pack the dishes. The family was attracted by the children's screams and rushing out of doors found both children huddled together in the barrel where they had crawled in an effort to get away from the fire. The excelsior had been entirely consumed and the children's clothing burned almost off.

The older child lived until midnight that night, but the younger one is still living and will probably recover, but the serious burns on its legs and face will cause it to be a cripple for life.

The news of the sad tragedy was received with profound sorrow in Utica, where Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are well known.

It is not known just how the accident occurred. It is not known whether the children were playing with matches or whether one of them stepped upon a match and set fire to the excelsior.

An Admirable Crichton

(Original.) To say that a man is an Admirable Crichton means that he has many accomplishments in which his skill is remarkable. The original Crichton spoke twelve languages, could dispute in Latin on any subject, was a master of fencing and all manner of sports, besides being an excellent actor.

I once knew an Admirable Crichton. He possessed a genius for everything except money making. His name was Lawrence Dudley. As the real Crichton was in the service of the Duke of Mantua, a tutor to the duke's son, so Dudley, after taking every honor in the universities he attended, went south and tutored in the family of a wealthy planter named La Fourche. He taught Marie La Fourche music and prepared young Ben La Fourche for college.

This was in the autumn and winter of 1860-61, and the spirit of civil war was red hot in the south. Dudley had so fascinated many of the planter families that the fact of his being a Yankee did not change their enthusiasm for him. However, it finally came to his ears that La Fourche had been advised to send him north to save him from rough treatment. Dudley asked La Fourche if his presence in the household was compromising.

"By no means," replied the planter. "Everybody knows my loyalty to the south. Moreover, if you leave, Ben will not be ready for college, and I am anxious to have him enter next June."

"Then you are quite willing that I should maintain my position?" "Act your own pleasure."

The next day a printed circular was received by each and every man in the place whom Dudley knew, challenging all comers to argue the question brewing between the states with knife, pistol, small sword, cutlass, lance, javelin, halberd, any kind of weapon that had ever been used by contentious man. In any other part of the world such a circular would have excited laughter. In the south, where the turn of old has often sprung up like a flower from a root dormant for centuries, the case was different. The young planters of high degree met informally for consultation as to what should be done. They decided to send a polite note to Dudley accepting the challenge, the test to come off in a tourney. The day was set, though Dudley averred that the meeting should be no glored affair and none but the necessary men witnesses should be present.

The parties met in a secluded spot hedged in by trees. There were three men present, each of whom had received a circular, as well as several strangers who had got wind of the affair and come uninvited. The first man pitted against Dudley was Stewart Anderson, who had studied defense with fells in Paris and had fought several duels with the rapier. The two men faced each other in shirt and trousers and began to fence. Within a minute Anderson's sword went flying over a tree. With true southern fire he called on Dudley to finish him. Dudley put his hand on his heart, bowed low and said he would not deprecate the south of so very by a gentleman.

The next affair was with a pistol, and Dudley ended it with a quick fire shooting the knife out of his opponent. This was followed by an engagement with cutlasses. Dudley's opponent having been speared by a thorn with his weapon while at sea. Dudley parried the man's thrusts for awhile and then gave him a blow with the flat of his cutlass that stunned him.

This finished the contests so far as

MISS ROSE OWENS, No. 720 Seventeenth St., WASHINGTON, D. C.

"If every suffering woman has the same experience with Wine of Cardui that I had, your medicine will be most popular. About a year ago I began to have a worn out tired feeling with lassitude, pains in the back and head which kept increasing every month. I felt that I needed something, but to get the right medicine was the trouble. I finally decided on your Wine of Cardui and only needed to take three bottles when I was fully recovered."

Miss Rose Owens.

If you are a suffering woman we would say to you that Wine of Cardui seldom fails to completely cure any case of female ills. We say emphatically, it never fails to benefit. Every day hundreds of sufferers are writing to our Ladies' Advisory Department. The letters are opened by persons competent to give advice. Mrs. Jones was cured by following the advice which was freely given her by the Ladies' Advisory Department. Miss Owens was cured without advice by just buying a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from her druggist and taking this great medicine in the privacy of her home. No doctor's examination, treatment or advice is necessary. You have read what these two cured women have written. Is this not enough to lead you to determine to be rid of suffering?

WHEN Miss Rose Owens, who has a responsible position in the Government service at Washington, D. C., decided to try Wine of Cardui, she made a wise choice. Over a million women have been relieved of female weakness by this same Wine of Cardui. It is not a strong medicine but may be taken every day in the year by any woman with benefit. It does not force results, but corrects derangements of the menstrual organs. It strengthens the nervous system, gives tone to the bodily functions, acts directly on the genital organs, and is the finest tonic for women known to the science of medicine.

August 13, 1900, Mrs. W. H. Jones, of Cameron, Mo., writes: "I suffered terribly at monthly periods for three years. I would sometimes go for seven months with no flow at all. Now I have my health back again and am expecting to be confined in January. I cannot praise your medicine enough."

Miss Alice M. Smith, of So. Minneapolis, Minn., tells how woman's monthly suffering is permanently relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I have never before given my endorsement for any medicine, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has added so much to my life and happiness that I feel like making an exception in this case. For two years every month I would have two days of severe pain and could find no relief, but one day while visiting a friend I ran across Lydia E. Pinkham's 'Vegetable Compound'—she had used it with the best results and advised me to try it. I found that it worked wonders with me; I now experience no pain, and only had to use a few bottles to bring about this wonderful change."—Miss ALICE M. SMITH, 804 Third Ave., South Minneapolis, Minn.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Many women suffer silently and see their best gifts fade away. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes the entire female organism healthy.

CANDIDATES INITIATED BY THE D. O. K. K.

Ten Were From Utica and Four From Shawnee—Banquet Followed the Interesting Ceremony.

There were great doings on Tuesday night in Kootah Temple, 101, D. O. K. K., held in the spacious hall of Newark Lodge, No. 13, Knights of Pythias, in the Hibbert & Schaus block. A class of fourteen trembling pilgrims crossed the arid desert in search of the cooling waters of Zem Zem. Ten of the candidates were from Shawnee and four from Utica. The initiatory work on the floor was under the supervision of C. J. Graef as master of ceremonies.

An elegant banquet was served after the initiation at which C. L. H. Long acted as toastmaster. A number of bright and interesting speeches were made by Messrs. W. A. Ashbrook of Johnstown, Fred Sperry of Utica, Prof. F. M. Townsend of Newark and W. P. Rees and Gomer Davis of Shawnee. David Jones of Shawnee sang a solo which was encored, and a sextette composed of Gomer Davis, W. P. Rees, Thomas Davis, H. P. Arnold, David Jones and David Hughes, rendered several pieces very beautifully. The entire occasion was a grand success in every particular and one of the most enjoyable that old Kootah has ever held. Those from Shawnee were Gomer Davis, W. P. Rees, Thomas L. Davis, H. P. Arnold, A. A. Carter, David Jones, Joseph Jones, John Blackburn, John Bullock and David Hughes, and those from Utica were C. C. Bricker, Madison McClellan, Ross Smith and Mr. Dillon.

Much credit is due for the success of the affair to the committee of arrangements, consisting of Messrs. J. N. Wilson, James Criswell and J. U. Barbee.

BREWERY

Strike as Viewed by the Wine and Spirit News, Official Organ of the Liquor League.

The Wine and Spirit News, the official organ of the Ohio Liquor League, has a leading article on the brewery strike now on in Columbus. The News contends that the employers are entitled to public sympathy in the present strike, for the reason that the men who quit work did so from no differences about hours or wages, but at the behest of labor agitators, among whom is mentioned George W. Bope an attorney who was defeated for police judge on the Republican ticket by 2500 votes. It is charged that Bope, smarting under his chagrin, in order to get political revenge on Hanna, attempted to get local option in Columbus.

Mr. Trautman of Cincinnati, pointed out the absurd position of Bope, who as a representative of the brewery workers, had asked the saloon keepers to stand by them. To bring about local option would punish these very men who have their capital invested in this business, and responded nobly to the call of the brewery workers to stand with them.

The following is the concluding paragraph:

"The strike should be settled as soon as possible, and with honor to both sides, but the fact that the strike is not one of wages nor of hours, and that the men are paid higher wages than the same class of labor elsewhere receives, ought to go far in fixing public sympathy with the employers. When the latter refuse to do justice to their men in these respects it is time for the men to rebel, but as the situation now looks there is not the least iota of reason for the men quitting their posts of labor, and time will show it to the sorrow of many misguided workmen."

The Hoster, Born and Schlee companies contend that they are "between the devil and the deep sea," and do not know what to do in view of the fact that the American Federation of Labor at the convention in New Orleans, decided that the brewery workers had no jurisdiction over engineers and firemen employed in breweries, whereas the Columbus brewers' union demanded otherwise of the employers.

The case of A. Smith Stephens, administrator, vs. Mary E. Hamilton, et al, was tried to the Circuit Court on Wednesday and submitted. The case of the Licking County Agricultural Society vs. James F. Lingafelter was argued and submitted Wednesday morning on a demurrer to the petition. The action is brought to restrain defendant from removing certain structures at Idlewild Park, which the defendant claims he has a right to remove by the terms of his lease. A bill of exceptions has been prepared in the case of Newark Savings Bank Company vs. Farmers' Bank Co., of Utica, to take the case to the Circuit Court on error to the Court of Common Pleas. The check was protested, it having turned out that there were no funds in the Utica Bank to meet it. Webb; Fulton & Fulton, Fulton, Smythe & Smythe.

A disordered stomach may cause no end of trouble. When the stomach fails to perform its functions the bowels become deranged, the liver and kidneys congested, causing numerous diseases, the most fatal of which are painless and therefore the more to be dreaded. The important thing is to restore the stomach and liver to a healthy condition, and for this purpose no better preparation can be used than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. COLOR RUSH

The annual class color rush occurred this morning at the High School building. Tuesday night members of the Junior class entered the building and hung scarlet and gray bunting from the roof of the building. The side-walks were painted with the Junior's class colors by members of that class.

Early Wednesday several seniors mounted the roof of the building and took the Junior's colors down. The scarlet and gray bunting was divided among members of the Senior class who held the colors as a trophy of victory over the vanquished Juniors.

The affair was carried on in secret. The color rushes have become features of the High School life. The colors on the side walk will be removed by members of the Junior class.

The Story of Irish Poplin.

The story of Irish poplin is a curious one. Lady Carey was to be presented at the court of Louis Philippe. She took with her to Paris a length of Irish poplin, which was then, first being made in Belfast. It was of a creamy white, embroidered all over with little dots and sprigs of gold. Lady Carey took it to a Parisian dressmaker, and the modiste went into ecstasies over it.

On her way up the stairs to the reception rooms at the Tuileries Lady Carey felt a pull at her dress. Afraid of pickpockets, she turned quickly. "I beg a thousand pardons," said a splendidly dressed woman who stood behind her, "but would you tell me what your dress is made of? I never saw anything so exquisite in my life."

A dozen times that evening Lady Carey had a similar experience, and the result was one of the most extraordinary crazes for poplin that ever was experienced for any new fabric. One Irish firm sold $24,000 worth of the material within a year, and three large Belfast houses are said to have founded their present large fortunes on Irish poplin.

Pittsburgh, Penn., April 22—In the presence of 20,000 admirers, 18,010 of whom were paid admissions, Pittsburgh raised her second pennant at Exposition Park and then gave as bad exhibition of ball playing as has been seen here in years. Patsy Donovan's Kindergarten made the twice champions look like sailing players while Phillippi was in the box. In five innings the St. Louis batters made Snook own fans a copy by the way they hammered Phil. Twelve great hits and nine runs was their tally in six innings. Had it not been for the ground rules giving two bases on a hit into the crowd the number of runs would have been greater.

DRUGGIST,

IF YOU ARE A BUYER OF FIRE INSURANCE This May Interest You!

Franklin's Fire Insurance Agency, office first stairway south of Doty House, Newark, Ohio, during the year of 1894 (independent of all other agencies) issued policies in stock companies on monthly payments. At that time this agency thought it was necessary to do so and it proved itself by the business obtained in that way. In the past year this agency thinks in some cases that this old time custom has been abused and has decided (independent of all other agencies) that on and after June 1, 1903, that all policies must be settled not later than the month following their issue, except where special agreement is made at the time the policy is delivered, then assured may have a credit of 90 days. All premiums paid when policy is delivered or if same is brought to office during the month they are issued in, will be entitled to one per cent discount on the amount of premium paid.

On June 1, 1903, any policy that has been issued 90 days or more and not paid for, will be canceled on our books. And any part payment of premium paid in excess of what policy has earned for the time it has run will be returned to assured on demand. This agency is not a member of any combine or trust and runs its own affairs and is always on the lookout for the benefit of its customers. No need telling this agency what other agents will do for you. These are our rules and will be strictly enforced. Get our rates and ask your neighbor about our record for paying fire losses, before going elsewhere. Rates as high as any other company. 4-15-6t

TRUE LOVE

By William Shakespeare

LIT me not to the marriage of true minds. Admit impediments; love is not love which alters when it alteration finds. Or bends with the remover to remove. Oh, no! it is an ever-fixed mark. That looks on tempests, and is never shaken; It is the star to every wandering bark. Whose worth's unknown, although his height be taken. Love's not Time's fool, though rosy lips and cheeks Within his bending sickle's compass come. Love alters not with his brief hours and weeks. But bears it out, even to the edge of doom. If this be error, and upon me proved, I never writ, nor no man ever loved.

PRECOCIOUS GERMAN CHILDREN.

Herr A. Boer, a well known German schoolmaster, has recently published some interesting facts regarding the practice of smothering among German school children. He found that in the lower classes, from five to seven pupils habitually smothered their teachers. In the two higher classes boys between seven and ten years old smothered their teachers and in the two highest classes, between ten and thirteen, nine used to smother their teachers. In other words, exactly half of the boys in his school between the ages of five and thirteen were smotherers.

SMART COLORS.

Gray and Blue Popular in Paris. Heavy White Goods.

The craze for black and white is increasing instead of abating. Rough serge, cream cloth, zibelines and beavers are tremendously in demand. The vivid green we have admired for so long has given place to other tones. Purples and mauves are gaining ground and will have a longer run of popularity than the new chest red.

Gray is always a favorite shade in Paris. The deep blue note of color which has been so conspicuous in Paris for some time has not yet disappeared, but its popularity is a matter of days. Parisians are proverbially fickle in the matter of color, though for day wear they are faithful to browns and grays.

Pastel shades are again coming into favor and they are very beautiful.

DISAGREEABLE REFLECTIONS.

The mirror never flatters; it tells the truth, no matter how much it may hurt the pride or how humiliating and disagreeable the reflections. A red, rough skin is fatal to beauty, and blackheads, blotches and pimples are ruinous to the complexion, and no wonder such desperate efforts are made to hide these blemishes, and cover over the defects, and some never stop to consider the danger in skin foods, face lotions, soaps, salves and powders, but apply them vigorously and often without regard to consequences, and many complexions are ruined by the chemicals and poisons contained in these cosmetics.

Skin diseases are due to internal causes, to humors and poisons in the blood, and to attempt a cure by external treatment is an endless, hopeless task. Some simple wash or ointment is often beneficial when the skin is much inflamed or itches, but you can't depend upon local remedies for permanent relief, for the blood is continually throwing off impurities which irritate and clog the glands and pores of the skin, and as long as the blood remains unhealthy, just so long will the eruptions last. To effectually and permanently cure skin troubles the blood must be purified and the system thoroughly cleansed and built up, and S. S. S., the well known blood purifier and tonic, is acknowledged superior to all other remedies for this purpose. It is the only guaranteed strictly vegetable blood remedy. It never deranges the system or impairs the digestion like Potash and Arsenic and drugs of this character, but aids in the digestion and assimilation of food and improves the appetite. Being a blood purifier and tonic combined, the humors and poisons are counteracted and the blood made rich and pure, and at the same time the general health and system is rapidly built up and good health is established, and this, after all, is the secret of a smooth, soft skin and beautiful complexion.

If you have any skin trouble send for our free book, "The Skin and Its Diseases." No charge for medical advice. Write us about your case.

"Say, mister," said the boy, who had been wrinking his face, scratching his head and rubbing his right foot up and down his left leg in the effort to remember something that had escaped him, "what's the name of that place where we've got so many soldiers?"

"Fort Sheridan?"

"No. It's a good deal further away than that."

"The Philippines?"

"That ain't just it, but it's somewhere around there."

"You don't mean Manila?"

A red, rough skin is fatal to beauty, and blackheads, blotches and pimples are ruinous to the complexion, and no wonder such desperate efforts are made to hide these blemishes, and cover over the defects, and some never stop to consider the danger in skin foods, face lotions, soaps, salves and powders, but apply them vigorously and often without regard to consequences, and many complexions are ruined by the chemicals and poisons contained in these cosmetics.

Skin diseases are due to internal causes, to humors and poisons in the blood, and to attempt a cure by external treatment is an endless, hopeless task. Some simple wash or ointment is often beneficial when the skin is much inflamed or itches, but you can't depend upon local remedies for permanent relief, for the blood is continually throwing off impurities which irritate and clog the glands and pores of the skin, and as long as the blood remains unhealthy, just so long will the eruptions last. To effectually and permanently cure skin troubles the blood must be purified and the system thoroughly cleansed and built up, and S. S. S., the well known blood purifier and tonic, is acknowledged superior to all other remedies for this purpose. It is the only guaranteed strictly vegetable blood remedy. It never deranges the system or impairs the digestion like Potash and Arsenic and drugs of this character, but aids in the digestion and assimilation of food and improves the appetite. Being a blood purifier and tonic combined, the humors and poisons are counteracted and the blood made rich and pure, and at the same time the general health and system is rapidly built up and good health is established, and this, after all, is the secret of a smooth, soft skin and beautiful complexion.
